

From: John Pethick <john.pethick@wildy.com>
Subject: special 10% discount
To: bakinyanju@btinternet.com
Date: Wednesday, 16 June, 2010, 18:41

I am pleased to let you know that we have just been given permission from the publishers to offer all our customers a special 10% discount on the following two titles as long as ordered before the end of July 2010

Two essential guides to steer you through the complexities of international financial regulation

International Guide to Hedge Fund Regulation 195.00 Pounds

International Guide to Hedge Fund Regulation is the starting point for anyone planning to set up a hedge fund in one or more of 20 jurisdictions.

Covering the regulatory implications of a fund, from authorisation and establishment to marketing, voluntary codes and tax considerations, is right up to date, including:

- The G20's intention to increase offshore regulation and information provision requirements
- The EU's draft Directive on Alternative Investment Fund Managers (AIFM), scheduled to come into force in 2011

International Guide to Money Laundering and Practice, Third Edition 175.00 Pounds

This new edition of the much respected, International Guide to Money Laundering and Practice features:

- In-depth analysis of the latest developments in the AML/CTF framework
- Insight into the work of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) to minimise access to the global financial system for criminals and terrorists
- Local practitioners providing expert guidance on the money laundering regimes in their country, including compliance and confiscation issues

Edited by leading international law firm, Baker & McKenzie, it now includes 33 country reports, including nine new ones – Bermuda, Brazil, British Virgin Islands, China, India, New Zealand, United Arab Emirates, Ukraine, Puerto Rico.

Please note the prices above are the recommended prices before the 10% discount and do not include carriage.